UNITED STATES SUPPLEMENT TO MOTION
FOR FINAL ORDER OF FORFEITURE

The United States supplements its Motion for Final Order of Forfeiture (Doc. 381) in response to the Court's Order of April 14, 2017 (Doc. 382).

The Court is entirely correct that the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture will become final as to the Defendants at their sentencings, which have not yet occurred. Therefore, the United States clarifies that it requests the proposed Final Order of Forfeiture be held for entry until the Defendants have been sentenced.

The United States moves that the Court enter a Final Order of Forfeiture after both Defendants, Jeffrey Eugene Rose, Sr. and Pamela Annette Rose, have been sentenced.

Respectfully submitted,

ABE MARTINEZ
Acting United States Attorney
